

Opinion

How do you spell financial relief? B-I-N-G-O!

Las Vegas, Nevada, and Atlantic City, New Jersey, are pretty big cities. A lot of people who live there don't gamble, so there's still a pretty good chance that per capita, Carbondale has more gamblers than they do.

Have you ever seen a town where there are more raffish, lottery tickets, or bingo games? Everybody knows that there is a lot of illegal gambling done, too, but we're amazed at the number of charitable fundraising events that involve games of chance. They all seem to be successful.

Apparently, Carbondale area people treat "buying chances" as a form of recreation. They don't care that their chances of winning the Daily Number is only one chance in 1,000. It's fun to try to win! It's entertainment!

Resolving to help solve city's problems

As 1983 draws to a close, people start thinking about the new year and what the future holds in store. Many people resolve to turn over a new leaf and change their lives for the better in some way.

On January 2, Charlotte Moro will be sworn in as mayor of Carbondale and a new city administration will be formed. The mayor-elect and city council have already resolved to solve Carbondale's numerous problems, but we need a lot more than just words from our elected officials to the effect that "I'll do everything in my power to help Carbondale."

We need tangible solutions to problems, solutions that council has not yet found.

Council and the new administration will need the advice, help, and understanding of all the citizens in 1984. It would help if each of us makes a new year's resolution to help solve Carbondale's dilemma by assisting in any way possible. Carbondale's problems are not the responsibility of just council and the administration. We all have a vested interest in restoring our city to tip-top condition!

Leon Bly and the son of Martin Healy resided in Carbondale until he was 12. Leon, temperatures ranging from 30 to zero, sleep, snow, freezing rain, we've had it all. When the snow falls, people who own corner lots realize the value of their property. The local manager has very little authority in regard to participating with other businesses in various promotions. At one time, Newberry's was one of the best advertisers in town, but now their advertising budget is almost nonexistent.

Our series of articles about Benjamin Franklin High School has brought back a lot of pleasant memories for many of our readers. Mrs. Robert Aiken, RD 2, Waymart, recently told us that her husband was a part of the first class to graduate from the new (at that time) building. The year was 1950 and Robert Aiken's name was the first name to appear on the commencement program. Mrs. Aiken said that those were the happiest years of her life.

Ozzie Chambers had quite a few comments about the cute picture of his grandson, Adam, which he used in his Christmas tree. The picture was taken by Ros-A-Studio.

One lucky person was the big jackpot at a Saint Rose bingo game recently. A new jackpot is building up now. Everyone can enjoy the good food there every Wednesday.

The Carbondale NEWS did its part by contributing to the Christmas lighting fund. We hope the other businesses and clubs will also pitch in so that some new decorations can be added next year.

How many times have you encountered a person you used to know but can't remember his or her name? Our guess is that that never happens to Cy Grosvener, former Carbondale resident who now lives in Elmira, N.Y. Judging from the articles Cy recently submitted on nicknames, it would seem that Cy remembers everyone who ever lived in the Carbondale Area.

Cindy Townsend Battelle, 4971 English Drive, Amandale, Virginia, enjoyed the nostalgic picture of the Ben Franklin Bank under the direction of Martin Bly. She forwarded a copy of the Lake Bradstock Secondary School newspaper which announced that the school's marching band had captured the top award at the Virginia State Marching Band Competition. Also, Carl Bly received a letter of being named "Best Director" in the state competition.

Joseph E. Addley Jr., Carbondale, is the grandson of

Do you remember when...

15 YEARS AGO
The Children of Romanus Wilson's second grade class of Roosevelt School presented a Christmas program. Featured were: Eric Mitchell, Judy Collura, Ronald Tarsanelli, Rose Marie Mosher, Billy Clark, Kim Smith, Cathy Cox, Carrie Dunn, David Shackhouse, Ann St. Ledger, Bryan Wormuth, Raymond Neary, John Kane, Cornelia Aston, Gary Griffiths, Steve Ogearty, Mary Vaden, Barbara Swartz, Randy Evans, Michael Fry, Laura Devitt, Michael Lepore, Jeffrey Owens, Ann Gilroy, and Craig Umler.

CERJ, Physicians and Police chief reviewed the marijuana and suggest a novel approach to solving Carbondale's financial dilemma - a gigantic weekly bingo game!

Certainly Carbondale is as non-profit as you can get ($400,000 deficit), so why not try what has worked so well for churches and other organizations? A well-publicized bingo game would attract crowds from other cities. If properly run, at least a thousand dollars profit a week could be realized. One night a week, 50 weeks a year - that's $50,000.

Even the losers could find "buying chances" as a form of recreation. They don't care that their chances of winning the Daily Number is only one chance in 1,000. It's fun to try to win! It's entertainment!

Apparently, Carbondale area people treat "buying chances" as a form of recreation. They don't care that their chances of winning the Daily Number is only one chance in 1,000. It's fun to try to win! It's entertainment!

On January 2, Charlotte Moro will be sworn in as mayor of Carbondale and a new city administration will be formed. The mayor-elect and city council have already resolved to solve Carbondale's numerous problems, but we need a lot more than just words from our elected officials to the effect that "I'll do everything in my power to help Carbondale."

We need tangible solutions to problems, solutions that council has not yet found.

Council and the new administration will need the advice, help, and understanding of all the citizens in 1984. It would help if each of us makes a new year's resolution to help solve Carbondale's dilemma by assisting in any way possible. Carbondale's problems are not the responsibility of just council and the administration. We all have a vested interest in restoring our city to tip-top condition!

Leon Bly and the son of Martin Healy resided in Carbondale until he was 12. Leon, temperatures ranging from 30 to zero, sleep, snow, freezing rain, we've had it all. When the snow falls, people who own corner lots realize the value of their property. The local manager has very little authority in regard to participating with other businesses in various promotions. At one time, Newberry's was one of the best advertisers in town, but now their advertising budget is almost nonexistent.

Our series of articles about Benjamin Franklin High School has brought back a lot of pleasant memories for many of our readers. Mrs. Robert Aiken, RD 2, Waymart, recently told us that her husband was a part of the first class to graduate from the new (at that time) building. The year was 1950 and Robert Aiken's name was the first name to appear on the commencement program. Mrs. Aiken said that those were the happiest years of her life.

Ozzie Chambers had quite a few comments about the cute picture of his grandson, Adam, which he used in his Christmas tree. The picture was taken by Ros-A-Studio.

One lucky person was the big jackpot at a Saint Rose bingo game recently. A new jackpot is building up now. Everyone can enjoy the good food there every Wednesday.

The Carbondale NEWS did its part by contributing to the Christmas lighting fund. We hope the other businesses and clubs will also pitch in so that some new decorations can be added next year.

How many times have you encountered a person you used to know but can't remember his or her name? Our guess is that that never happens to Cy Grosvener, former Carbondale resident who now lives in Elmira, N.Y. Judging from the articles Cy recently submitted on nicknames, it would seem that Cy remembers everyone who ever lived in the Carbondale Area.

Cindy Townsend Battelle, 4971 English Drive, Amandale, Virginia, enjoyed the nostalgic picture of the Ben Franklin Bank under the direction of Martin Bly. She forwarded a copy of the Lake Bradstock Secondary School newspaper which announced that the school's marching band had captured the top award at the Virginia State Marching Band Competition. Also, Carl Bly received a letter of being named "Best Director" in the state competition.

Joseph E. Addley Jr., Carbondale, is the grandson of down Caspian Street and swung into Carter's Service Station.

The City Planning Commission gave formal approval to the capital improvements phase of the matter plan for community redevelopment, among the contemplated improvements being the eventual payment of all dirt roads in the city and the resurfacing of all other streets.

Scranton Spring Brook Water Service Corp. employees worked hard on the job of repairing a water main break on N. Church St. in front of the N.E.S. office after a break had caused a geyser to shoot 10 feet into the air and caused the pavement to heave for a considerable distance around the point of fracture.

A general alarm fire on the morning of December 29 left the Davidson Building at Wyoming Ave. and Spruce St. in flames. The fire was caused by a defective heater in the building.

An arrest made by Patrolmen Al Nolan, Victor Collins, and Tom Scalo led to the clearing up of the burglary of Whiskey's Service Station, the Cleveland man they questioned admitting to breaking into the business place.

Hydrus Mills resumed work at its Simpson plant following a period of shutdown lasting from a labor force which flamed into the open on December 10.

The family of Edward Spall, 65 Willow Ave., was forced to leave its home because of mine fire gas seeping into the structure and State Mine Inspector James Munley and Chief of Police Francis P. Judge conducted tests and found carbon monoxide gas in low basins in the Willow Ave. neighborhood.

B. Tontine city insurance agency head, purchased the Joseph M. Bruen Coal Sales Agency in Homestead, the Green Agency being Hudson Coal Company's retail outlet.

William Hittinger, who began work as an apprentice tool maker in 1961

Happy New Year to everyone from Michael "Mickey" and Kay Correll, 118 Crompton Road, Waynesboro, Va. 22986. Mickey is the son of George and Mary Gaughan Correll, Belmont St. Kay is the daughter of James and Mary Correll, who are the sister and brother of Marian, deceased, Joseph, George and one of the great basketball stars of yesterday, Shine Correll.

Thinking out loud . . .

used to sit on his throne in J.J. Newberry's Newberry's used to be a vital part of the Carbondale business and economy. Today Newberry's is a subsidiary of the Metcory chain and all decisions are made at corporate headquarters. The local manager has very little authority in regard to participating with other businesses in various promotions. At one time, Newberry's was one of the best advertisers in town, but now their advertising budget is almost nonexistent.

Our series of articles about Benjamin Franklin High School has brought back a lot of pleasant memories for many of our readers. Mrs. Robert Aiken, RD 2, Waymart, recently told us that her husband was a part of the first class to graduate from the new (at that time) building. The year was 1950 and Robert Aiken's name was the first name to appear on the commencement program. Mrs. Aiken said that those were the happiest years of her life.

Ozzie Chambers had quite a few comments about the cute picture of his grandson, Adam, which he used in his Christmas tree. The picture was taken by Ros-A-Studio.

One lucky person was the big jackpot at a Saint Rose bingo game recently. A new jackpot is building up now. Everyone can enjoy the good food there every Wednesday.

The Carbondale NEWS did its part by contributing to the Christmas lighting fund. We hope the other businesses and clubs will also pitch in so that some new decorations can be added next year.

How many times have you encountered a person you used to know but can't remember his or her name? Our guess is that that never happens to Cy Grosvener, former Carbondale resident who now lives in Elmira, N.Y. Judging from the articles Cy recently submitted on nicknames, it would seem that Cy remembers everyone who ever lived in the Carbondale Area.

Cindy Townsend Battelle, 4971 English Drive, Amandale, Virginia, enjoyed the nostalgic picture of the Ben Franklin Bank under the direction of Martin Bly. She forwarded a copy of the Lake Bradstock Secondary School newspaper which announced that the school's marching band had captured the top award at the Virginia State Marching Band Competition. Also, Carl Bly received a letter of being named "Best Director" in the state competition.

Joseph E. Addley Jr., Carbondale, is the grandson of

Leon Bly and the son of Martin Healy resided in Carbondale until he was 12. Leon, temperatures ranging from 30 to zero, sleep, snow, freezing rain, we've had it all. When the snow falls, people who own corner lots realize the value of their property. The local manager has very little authority in regard to participating with other businesses in various promotions. At one time, Newberry's was one of the best advertisers in town, but now their advertising budget is almost nonexistent.

Our series of articles about Benjamin Franklin High School has brought back a lot of pleasant memories for many of our readers. Mrs. Robert Aiken, RD 2, Waymart, recently told us that her husband was a part of the first class to graduate from the new (at that time) building. The year was 1950 and Robert Aiken's name was the first name to appear on the commencement program. Mrs. Aiken said that those were the happiest years of her life.

Ozzie Chambers had quite a few comments about the cute picture of his grandson, Adam, which he used in his Christmas tree. The picture was taken by Ros-A-Studio.

One lucky person was the big jackpot at a Saint Rose bingo game recently. A new jackpot is building up now. Everyone can enjoy the good food there every Wednesday.

The Carbondale NEWS did its part by contributing to the Christmas lighting fund. We hope the other businesses and clubs will also pitch in so that some new decorations can be added next year.

How many times have you encountered a person you used to know but can't remember his or her name? Our guess is that that never happens to Cy Grosvener, former Carbondale resident who now lives in Elmira, N.Y. Judging from the articles Cy recently submitted on nicknames, it would seem that Cy remembers everyone who ever lived in the Carbondale Area.

Cindy Townsend Battelle, 4971 English Drive, Amandale, Virginia, enjoyed the nostalgic picture of the Ben Franklin Bank under the direction of Martin Bly. She forwarded a copy of the Lake Bradstock Secondary School newspaper which announced that the school's marching band had captured the top award at the Virginia State Marching Band Competition. Also, Carl Bly received a letter of being named "Best Director" in the state competition.

Joseph E. Addley Jr., Carbondale, is the grandson of

Armed Forces News

Pvt. Banko
for duty in Bremerhaven, West Germany.

Karge, a clinical laboratory chief with the 7th Medical Command, was previously assigned at Fort Belvoir, St. Louis, Mo. He is a 1968 graduate of the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications, and combat operations.

Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire weapons specialist.

The 10-week school was conducted at the Marine Corps Development and Education Center in Quantico, Va. The course is designed to screen and train personnel for commissioning as Marine officers by providing instruction in leadership and basic military subjects.

Paul Warhola
Marine 2nd Lt. Paul J. Warhola, son of William P. and Margaret A. Warhola of 331 McKinley Ave., Jersey, was commissioned in his present rank upon graduation from Officer Candidate School.

A presentation of the Vo-Tech School's Annual Operating Report by Dr. P.M. Menck, Executive Director, was made at the Vo-Tech School's annual convention at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Sheryl Weckel
in program
Carbondale participated in three presentations of the special Christmas program at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Wm. Korge
Capt. William H. Korge III, son of Pauline C. Frick of Waymart, has arrived at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Armed Forces News
for duty in Bremerhaven, West Germany.

Karge, a clinical laboratory chief with the 7th Medical Command, was previously assigned at Fort Belvoir, St. Louis, Mo. He is a 1968 graduate of the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications, and combat operations.

Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire weapons specialist.

The 10-week school was conducted at the Marine Corps Development and Education Center in Quantico, Va. The course is designed to screen and train personnel for commissioning as Marine officers by providing instruction in leadership and basic military subjects.

Paul Warhola
Marine 2nd Lt. Paul J. Warhola, son of William P. and Margaret A. Warhola of 331 McKinley Ave., Jersey, was commissioned in his present rank upon graduation from Officer Candidate School.

A presentation of the Vo-Tech School's Annual Operating Report by Dr. P.M. Menck, Executive Director, was made at the Vo-Tech School's annual convention at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Sheryl Weckel
in program
Carbondale participated in three presentations of the special Christmas program at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Wm. Korge
Capt. William H. Korge III, son of Pauline C. Frick of Waymart, has arrived at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Armed Forces News
for duty in Bremerhaven, West Germany.

Karge, a clinical laboratory chief with the 7th Medical Command, was previously assigned at Fort Belvoir, St. Louis, Mo. He is a 1968 graduate of the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications, and combat operations.

Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire weapons specialist.

The 10-week school was conducted at the Marine Corps Development and Education Center in Quantico, Va. The course is designed to screen and train personnel for commissioning as Marine officers by providing instruction in leadership and basic military subjects.

Paul Warhola
Marine 2nd Lt. Paul J. Warhola, son of William P. and Margaret A. Warhola of 331 McKinley Ave., Jersey, was commissioned in his present rank upon graduation from Officer Candidate School.

A presentation of the Vo-Tech School's Annual Operating Report by Dr. P.M. Menck, Executive Director, was made at the Vo-Tech School's annual convention at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Sheryl Weckel
in program
Carbondale participated in three presentations of the special Christmas program at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Wm. Korge
Capt. William H. Korge III, son of Pauline C. Frick of Waymart, has arrived at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Armed Forces News
for duty in Bremerhaven, West Germany.

Karge, a clinical laboratory chief with the 7th Medical Command, was previously assigned at Fort Belvoir, St. Louis, Mo. He is a 1968 graduate of the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia. OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications, and combat operations.

Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire weapons specialist.

The 10-week school was conducted at the Marine Corps Development and Education Center in Quantico, Va. The course is designed to screen and train personnel for commissioning as Marine officers by providing instruction in leadership and basic military subjects.

Paul Warhola
Marine 2nd Lt. Paul J. Warhola, son of William P. and Margaret A. Warhola of 331 McKinley Ave., Jersey, was commissioned in his present rank upon graduation from Officer Candidate School.

A presentation of the Vo-Tech School's Annual Operating Report by Dr. P.M. Menck, Executive Director, was made at the Vo-Tech School's annual convention at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Sheryl Weckel
in program
Carbondale participated in three presentations of the special Christmas program at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, Lackawanna County Area Vocational-Technical School Board. Seated left to right: Gerald Snyder, Lakeland; John McDonough, Dunmore; John Pisarcik, Carbondale Area and Bruce Uhrman, Mid Valley. Standing left to right: Dr. P.M. Menck, executive director N.E.L.U. No. 19, Jack Munley, Valley View, Charles Casco, Scranton, Michael Sugar, Forest City, James Smiles, North Pocono, and Robert Muzzi, director of vocational education. Absent when the photograph was taken was Reverend Merle Davis, Riverside.

Vo-Tech school board elects

The Lackawanna County Area Vocational-Technical School Board recently held its annual convention at the South Vo-Tech Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa. The convention was held at the Vo-Tech School Center, 1000 N. 10th St., Scranton, Pa.

Ben-Mar Restaurant
and cocktail lounge
282-5970
Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Featuring Nightly $4.95 Special
Serving From 5:00 P.M.

Northeastern Bank promotes Cheryl Fisher

David L. Tressler, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Northeastern Bank of Pennsylvania, announced that the board of directors approved the promotion of Cheryl A. Fisher to the position of assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She has been with the bank since 1978 and has held various positions, including assistant vice president and manager of the bank's Scranton office.

Cheryl A. Fisher, 34, is a graduate of Franklin College, Franklin, Indiana. She